RMLS™ Orientation

You will be treated to a wide variety of topics to help get you acclimated to all things RMLS™ has to offer, including, user preferences, creating a personalized report banner, search and mapping features, where to add a listing and where to find help if you need it. We will also discuss what other classes you may want to take and how to sign up. Lastly, we will cover some of the pertinent Rules and Regulations, discuss SentrilLock and do a quick introduction to Realtors Property Resource® (RPR).

Failure to attend Orientation within 30 days of joining RMLS™ may result in a reduction in access level to RMLSweb until Orientation has been completed

Remine

Remine combines consumer data and property data onto a single platform that delivers actionable intelligence to real estate agents. Remine can help you to focus your marketing campaigns and find only the most qualified leads for potential sellers and buyers. Whether you are farming your neighborhood or working with investors, Remine can help you target key opportunities in seconds using its interactive map and data-based layers.

Homesnap

Learn how to access real-time comprehensive, agent-only MLS data for your business through Homesnap. By learning how to utilize the tools available to agents and consumers in Homesnap, agents can increase their productivity, maximize their efficiency and impress their clients while managing their business on the go.
